Every Child is an Artist!

What is ArtSmart?

ArtSmart classes are specifically designed to help children learn about the broad, exciting history of art. Also it allows each child artist to create. Classes are tailored with age appropriate lesson plans and all supplies are brought into the classroom by the teaching artist. For example, if a lesson on the 'well-known' artist Michelangelo was the artist of the day, class would begin with a study of the artist, what mediums he used and why he was remembered the most. The class would then review his artwork and learn how to differentiate it from another artist's work. Then the final activity would be having the children create their masterpiece on the paper attached to the under-side of their desks. This allows them to 'experience' painting the Sistine Chapel ceiling.
