

CODE OF CONDUCT!

How We Play at Leonardo's Children's Museum and Adventure Quest.....

Leonardo's believes that exploring in a fun safe environment can spark imagination and stimulate curiosity through the power of play. To support positive experiences, Leonardo's expects the following from all guests.*

- 1 Have fun!
- 2 Please use walking feet and inside voices in the museum.
- 3 Respect others and be courteous to others around you. Use positive language and actions. Profanity, harassment, threatening language and physical interactions are strictly prohibited.
- 4 Children must be under the constant supervision of an adult caregiver at all times. Adults must immediately report any emergency or child separated from the group to a guest services staff member. Adult supervisors must be at least 16 years of age.
- 5 We promote families PLAYING together so please limit cell phone use and other electronic devices while enjoying Leonardo's to make the best experience possible.
- 6 Please be respectful of exhibits, supplies and fellow guests. We want our unique exhibits to last well into the future for many other guests to see.
- 7 Eating is permitted in Adventure Quest picnic areas and the birthday rooms. Only bottled water is allowed on the museum floor please.
- 8 Leonardo's is a smoke free building and this includes e-cigarettes.
- 9 Personal photography with hand held cameras is permitted unless otherwise noted. Guests must acknowledge that they may be included in photography or video taken at the time of their visit by a staff member or an approved sponsor. These images and/or videos may be broadcast and distributed without limitation and guests will not receive compensation for inclusion of their likeness. Accommodations are available when requested at check-in. Members of the media who wish to film or photograph at Leonardo's need to contact the Marketing Department in advance of their visit.

*Violations of these policies and/or code of conduct may result in guests being asked to leave (no refund) and/or the revocation of membership (no refund).

Our Mission:

To enrich and inspire children of all ages by creating fun learning opportunities.
